

Confidence-Building Areas Checklist

Module 2 — Where to Start Decluttering

Start with areas that have zero emotional attachment. Success here builds the momentum and confidence needed for harder areas later.

BEST STARTING AREAS

Area	Why It Works	Date Done	Notes
■ Kitchen utensil drawer	Full of duplicates and gadgets nobody uses
■ Under bathroom sink	Expired products, old cleaning supplies
■ Linen closet	Stained towels, mismatched sheets
■ Pantry	Expired food, ancient spices
■ Junk drawer	Dead batteries, old keys, rubber bands
■ Coat closet	Coats that don't fit, broken umbrellas
■ Garage workbench	Rusty tools, dried paint, mystery hardware
■ Medicine cabinet	Expired meds (dispose at any pharmacy)

NEVER START WITH THESE (Save for Module 4)

- ✗ Photos or photo albums
- ✗ Letters, cards, personal correspondence
- ✗ Heirlooms and inherited items
- ✗ Personal collections (figurines, stamps, coins)
- ✗ Holiday decorations
- ✗ Sentimental clothing (wedding dress, military uniform)

PROFESSIONAL HELP OPTIONS

Professional	Best For	Cost Range
Move Manager	Large homes, out-of-state families, overwhelmed seniors	$50-$150/hr
Professional Organizer	Need structure and accountability, feeling stuck	$50-$150/hr
Estate Sale Company	Home full of valuables, antiques, quality furniture	30-40% commission
Junk Removal	Urgent timeline, speed over value, final cleanup	$500-$3,000

Upload your completed checklist to your SeniorSafe vault at app.seniorsafeapp.com.

© Riggins Strategic Solutions | rigginsstrategicsolutions.com

Ryan Riggins | Licensed NC Realtor #361546 | eXp Realty